

Automotive Recyclers of Washington

Legislative

Vehicle recyclers often face a number of legislative issues that will affect vehicle recyclers while the Washington State Legislature meets.

AROW has a lobbyist and lobbies the Washington State Legislature on legislative proposals affecting vehicle recyclers.

The Washington State Legislature is not in session at this time.

The Washington State Legislature meets from early January through about May of each year and AROW is there to represent the vehicle recycling industry.
